U.N.H. IN A CLASS BY ITSELF

This topic truly summarizes the uniquely structured college we attend. U.N.H. is not only known for its ability to make incoming and currently enrolled students feel right at home, but in fact serves as a stepping stone to the gates of success. Our students benefits from the closely supervised class room sessions and the student to teacher relationship.

Most importantly U.N.H. shows a deep interest in the educational and personal growth of the student.

Therefore, I say to you, the fellow Chargers when you think of your Alma Mata think of its excellences.

In 1986-87, UNH experienced a brand new era in Division II sports. The girdiron team came off one of the best seasons in several years. The soccer, volleyball and basketball teams came off great as usual. Our men's basketball team had its best showing in UNH history as it entered the NCAA's. The greatest achievement for UNH was when the lady Chargers hoopster team defeated Cal-Poly Pamona (77-75) to capture a NCAA Division II Championship.

During the academic school year of 1986-1987, the University of New Haven said its farewell wishes to a few old faces and welcome to new faces and new changes. At the end of the fall semester came about a change in the food service department on campus. The change was due to the resignation of Geoff Ramsey and David Murphy. In addition to these changes the university has employed new management staff.

The social calender at U.N.H was a very special part of the way we lived. The 1986-1987 school year gave us concerts by top name performers, dances and mixers with the best bands and D.J.s, lectures for the intelect and blockbuster movies to arouse our sense. To add to the list, the U.N.H theater department has become one of the best in the area drawing actors and viewers from around the nation. When others ask us how did we get so socially enriched, we explain that it's nothing new.

How do college students differ?

College students are unique, career oriented — They go to classes, while balancing check books, doing internships, studying, working 2-3 part-time jobs, eating, sleeping, skipping classes, protesting, learning to cope with roommates, preregistration, finals, spring break, graduation, job hunt for seniors, freshmen orientation, term papers, wearing the "right" clothes, attending meetings, belonging to clubs, helping fellow peers, having a good time, finding that special someone — not finding that special someone, going to beach parties, making noise in the library, and most of all developing long lasting friendships.

Unique Living

How do we live ? Where do we live ? With whom do we live with ? What will I do with my spare time ?

The enrollment of U.N.H is almost 2000. This number keeps the bonds that lasts a lifetime. We live together, laugh together and cry together. This is what makes U.N.H community strong. For those on the outside looking in we invite them to our house to learn whats new.

The Move on Campus

I get to this school and I'm the first person to move into the dorm. It's cold, dark and I haven't the foggiest idea who my roommate may be. Oh God! I hope I don't get a slob or a junkie for a roommate.

Oh, Oh! I got an athelete from Newark for a roommate. I hope he doesn't wreck the place.

Wouldn't you know it, I got a lacrosse player for a roommate too and he's a very mellow guy. I'm really getting psyched now because I have a great roommate, classes are going well, and I have my own kitchen. Yeah!, can you believe it? I thought that a dorm room was four walls and a closet. It's too bad that the freshmen have to suffer. Oh well, better luck next year.

When study time comes, I just go to the study corner. (thank God those lacrosse guys are practicing) When its time to relax, I can blast my stereo and stump my feet like the guys upstairs. Then when its time to party we empty that old refrigerator of ours and fill it with half a keg. I'll tell ya, I wish home was like this.

Life On Campus

STUDENT LIFE AT U.N.H.
WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT

Along with being an educational institution, U.N.H. offers many opportunities for personal growth. First of all, college life is what you make it and at U.N.H., there is a lot of potential to make it good. The Day Student Government and other organizations which each and very student is urged to get involved with sponsor various social and educational functions such as, lectures, beach parties, movies, dances, theatre performations, concerts, magicians and the list can go on and on. These functions all add to the enjoyment of life at U.N.H. One major advantage to U.N.H being a small school is the close knit relationships students have of each other. U.N.H. is a breeding ground for long term friendships and quality students.

For those of us who like the challenge of new technology, a game room composed of numerous video games along with a pool table and ping pong tables. For those of us who would like to get off campus once in a while, there are various clubs within the campus area. UNH may not be a large school and may not be one of the top party schools, but in its own and very special way, UNH rocks.

STUDENTS LIFE AT U.N.H.

The life at U.N.H is rather peculiar, each student does his or her own thing. While one student might be sitting around in charger cafe relaxing to the sounds of newly released videos, on a wide screen television. Another could be enjoying a nutritional meal prepared by our professional staff of cooks and bakers. There is just one catch to all this bazzar way of having fun is an old quotation. "When you are in Rome do as the Romans do, and when you are at the University of New Haven do as the chargers do.

The renown Southside Johnny and the Jukes came to entertain the University of New Haven. North Campus rocked on the night of homecoming to the top 40 hits and originals that made them great. In the company of a loud, hot and lively crowd, the band performed as well as the scouts promised that they were. Their spirit was evident as students could not hold themselves to their seats. They were dancing, cheering and signing to fuel the fire that had already started. We all wished that the fun would never end, and we wouldn't go home. We asked for more and more until we got what we wanted. We stomped, pounded and screamed until we couldn't scream anymore. What else could we ask for a day of fun and festivities a football game and top band with contempory music. The Whirling Dervishes opened the way for Southside Johnny and they really warmed the house. By the time Southside Johnny came on, the Gym was really rocking and if gave us that lasted for hours.

The time came when we had to say goodby and let Johnny get some rest. We did this only with the promise that they would return in the future.

right: Charlie Charger, a Disney Classic

I see it, I see a vision, a vision of celebration and jublilation. It's early now but soon there will be a celebration that we will never forget. I see a queen, one with beauty and glitter. I see her with a king, a figure that speaks for strength. Then I see a celebration after their crowing, a celebration that they will lead. There will be a parade that next day to show the students, parents and faculty that the spirit at hand will never end. Then there will be a football game, a game where our boys in blue will try to defend the honor of the land. When it's all done and the defenders have come home. We will feast and enjoy our victory. When the weekend is over and we're back to E110 the visions of Homecoming will never end.

The most exciting day of UNH history is Homecoming. Homecoming is comprised of all the clubs and organizations on campus competing in the banner contest . . . the spectacular crowning of the King and Queen and to polish off the evening, we end with the sensational 50's mixers. In the Banner contest, paint, stencils, posterboard and students were all over the place. The students worked diligently on what they hoped to be the winning banner. The banners were of glitter, glamour and theme. The themes ranged from "sting the bees" to "Get em Chargers." Creativity, originality, color and pride were the motto's of all who took part. Who would win was a prevailing question among all. But no matter who got the first prize, they were all winners.

Following the banner contest, was the introduction of the king and queen contestants. The MC called the contestants to the front and they all stepped forward very queenly and kingly. This allowed the audience a chance to take a final look before the winners were announced. The next step was the breath taking crowning of the king and queen. The main lawn was covered with students, faculty, and photographers. Everyone was waiting in anticipation, for who would be the next King and Queen of UNH. The MC announced the runner-ups and the crowd were extatic. It was time. The moment we've all been waiting for, the next 1986 Homecoming King and Queen are . . . Dave Peterson and Diane Esposito.

The grand finale was the fantastic 50's mixer which made the day complete. The mixer was one filled with many old classics which brought back many old memories. Old dances, old styles of dressing . . . you name it, it came back to mind. This mixer gave students a chance to relive the past — a past filled with uniqueness and style.

Blue & Gold

Spirits run high

The Saturday of homecoming was one that will always be remembered at the University of New Haven. The day started with a parade. The clubs and organizations all lined up with their banners and floats and marched to the North Campus to see the big football game between the UNH / Chargers and the AIC Yellow Jackets. Unfortunately for the Chargers, the Yellow Jackets walked away with a victory. However, despite the defeat, the crowd was one of much hope and optimism. After the game, everyone headed for the Lobster bake which was sponsored by the Alumni Association. This was a wonderful event. It allowed UNH alumni, undergraduates, graduates, and faculty & staff members an opportunity to unite and enjoy the afternoon together. When the sun started to go down, everyone headed for home. It was time to refresh yourself and rush to the Fall Concert in the North Campus Gymnasium. Everyone danced and partied all night to the music of Marshal Krenshaw. That Saturday will always be remembered.

Getting to the Game

As we celebrated our blue and gold homecoming, we waited in anticipation for what we knew would be the main event. The football game! The trot down to the field seemed to get longer and longer. The huge crowd was nearly going grantic. As the team headed on the field, everyone knew we were going to do it. Then the Kick off! Everyone, faculty and students showed their spirit for the boys in blue. We scored first and that vision of victory danced through our heads. A.I.C. Scored twice and we started to wonder. WE scored again and so did they. The crowd sat on the edge of their chairs. By halftime we still knew we could do it.

The Illing Junior High School band played at halftime to help soothe our nerves. But at the start of the second half it was back to nail biting. Final score was in favor of . . . A.I.C. That's right but to us the boys in blue still did it.

What's big, loud, and makes you dance on the first weekend of May? If you guessed that it is some kinda celebration well, you're close. This is the celebration to kick off the spring season!

At 6:00 a.m. members of the U.N.H. community will start the set up for the event that will rock all of New Haven on this Friday afternoon. Don't worry most classes are cancelled. There will be food, drink and other beverages (use your imagination). There will be many people dancing, singing, partying and simply having lots of fun.

In case you haven't figured it out yet, they call this fun, they call this excitement, they call this . . . MAY DAY!

Then it came! May Day!, students, faculty and people from all over the New England area came to see the event of the year. The four band music sweep didn't let anyone down as four bands played for five hours.

The main attraction of the day was Joan Jett and the Blackhearts. Joan Jett started the music set with hit tunes like "I love Rock & Roll," and "Everyday People." You could tell it was a success as people celebrated because the beer tent was almost empty.

After two encore performances they finally had to leave but not before giving everyone what they had paid for. Success was evident as seen in the glassy eyes of her audience. From that moment on we knew many things were to come.

The Del Fuegos went next and since everyone's knees were already bouncing they thought they would get in on the groove.

They were followed by Max Creek and Salt & Pepa and it became hard to stand in one spot for more than five seconds. For some it became too much as sounds and rhythm hit their spine and they danced in the street.

Six o'clock strolled by and it was time to leave but no one wanted to leave. You see after a day like this at U.N.H. there was this restlessness amongst the people. When the bands had gone and this day was done, everyone knew that Spring had finally come.

I will explain it the best that I can, but it was one of those things that you have to see it to believe it. Imagine your wildest fantasy where you and your friends were lost in a place where the only thing you were able to do was have good clean fun. Food, music . . . party!

But you see the thing that made this event successful as it was, wasn't just the appearance of top name bands, but it was the fun that we made and had with each other, our friends and foes. The day started at 6:00 a.m. with only one thing on everyone's mind, have fun! During the day you could get beer (if 21), shish-kabobs, or even personalized picture buttons. That's what it's all about. It was awesome, it was a blast it was May Day '87.

International Politics on the World Stage

There were many things to grasp in the academia of this year, in that, sometimes we would succeed and other times we would fail. The most important of those times was the knowledge gained having learned something from each course syllabus. From Electrical Engineering to photography: Aviation to Hotel/Restaurant Management, We (the student) manipulated the variables directly affecting our success/upward mobility.

It's Been One LONG Night

Once again, you've procrastinated until that exam scheduled for two weeks is tomorrow. So, What are you going to do about it? Just as others placed in a similar situation, You will stay-up until an insane hour of the night cramming, however, you can totally miss your nights rest for a Dr. Jowell Sociology exam.

Rarely will a delegate of procrastination preserve adequate timing for his exam(s) — once in awhile. Nevertheless, you'll go to the library and exhaust all resources enabling that paper's prompt com-

Having gone to a lot of games lately, I have another incentive to study-early. By the way, I have two case studies due for professor Wankel tomorrow, and you know something, My Economics exam is in an hour. Well, I guess we'll never learn.

Who (or What) is responsible for this

An A+ for U.N.H.

Wow! I can't believe it. The facilities are unbelievable in the place. Most of the students must think that the library is the only place to study, because, there is not a seat available. That's alright, I know of a place where the atmosphere is nice and a cure for the funny noises in your stomach awaits you. Just as well, I discovered a studyroom on the third floor of the main building that only a very few are aware of. Leaving room to be intrigued, I was by the Computer and Hotel Restaurant Schools both of which are amongst the finer programs in the institution.

I really got psyched once I reached and met people that wanted to study, and, people at the University of New Haven that got a kick-out-of studying and they're not sick!! Studying incentives helped me tremendously with my maintenance of my reputable grades/marks. Between the counseling center and the instructors, I really did well — did I have a choice? This being a small institution of high educational standards, I get all the attention I want (and some I don't). Note: The next time a U.N.H. graduate makes it big you'll know who's responsible.

Classes, classes and more classes, will it ever end? I'm a junior and it's been fourteen long years, and, that's not half of it. Monday, I'm in class from 8:10 in the morning until 9:45 that night for practically the entire day (Please! Do not ask, how I worked that out). I have diversely scheduled classes from photography to fluid dynamics. The only thing I really can't deal with is getting-up at seven o'clock in the morning to attend my Accounting 101 course.

The University of New Haven offers its students the exposure and richness in culture complementary to their scholastic endeavors with international relations. Was it a banner year? You bet, it was a banner year! The 1986-1987 athletic teams abilities proved worthy of celebration/ recognition by the student: football, tennis, soccer, basketball, softball, were all our heroes. Exceptional, the lady chargers are — National Champions for Divisional II Basketball Region (A first for U.N.H. but not the last!!).

Chargers have best season yet!

Off to the races is Jerry Gumbrect on the day U.N.H. did no evil as posted a decisive win.

Cool and always calm is Mike Horton, on this same play he hooked up with Haley to complete a 72 yard touchdown strike.

At home against Slippery Rock receiver Kevin Haley dashes for a 72 yard touchdown to put away "the rock".

The Slippery Rock ground game couldn't get off the ground as they were going nowhere fast.

The Chargers came out with style this year as a matter of fact they came off the best record in their history at 8 and 2 and barely missing the playoffs.

They started their great season with a big opening win over East Stroudsburg. From then on they posted an impressive five game winning streak. The string was snapped by A.I.C. on homecoming day. This win by the A.I.C. Yellowjackets came as a surprise as the Yellowjackets were considered the underdog.

The Chargers got back on the winning track by winning their next two games. They dropped the next game to rival Towson State. With this loss the chance for a playoff bid diminished. However, we didn't give up on the boys in blue and they didn't let anyone down as they defeated SUNY the next week by a score of 45-28.

Protecting the quarterback is the name of the game and for most of the year quarterback Mike Horton got all that he needed.

Cutting your opponent down to size is what the Chargers usually did.

This is whats happening, head coach Joseph Maher is telling his team that they must pressure that goalie.

That Golden Toe

The soccer team didn't lose but 5 games this year but to some of the U.N.H. community that may be considered a not so good year, for team that has a long winning tradition. No matter what anyone says the record is a good one.

The team started off with a "bang" as they rolled through their first 5 games. Their streak came to an abrupt halt when they conceded a loss to Queens College.

The rest of the season was not their best including 4 losses versus 4 wins and 1 tie. The season was by no means a waste because of good incoming recruits.

Kean College	w	4-1

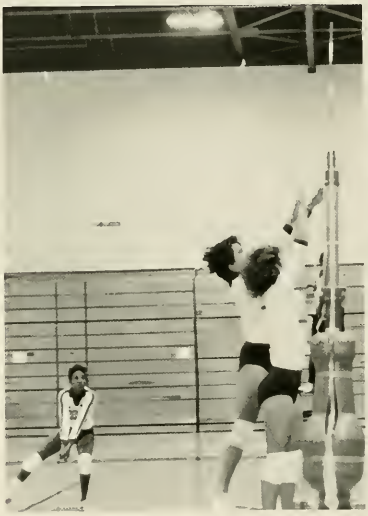
Clearing the ball away after a near hit score by the opposing team.

Captain Juan Carlos Osorio "directing" traffic to his team members in a victory over C.W. Post College.

On the defensive end of things, a New Haven defenseman works at getting the ball.

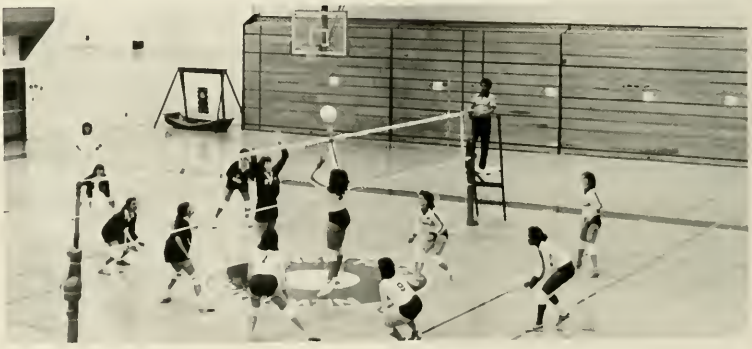
Going for the kill as Juan Carlos adds a goal help the team defeat Pace University at home.

Coach Debbie Chin letting her girls know that she expects top performance from every player.



Teamwork is the emphasis where in this case Luana Berry makes a save in their win against Assumption.

Everybody ready and waiting to receive the ball.



Making that big hit as New Haven is again victorious.

The volleyball team started the season with the thought of possibly bringing home a national championship. As the season started it began to look more and more like the ladies team would bring New Haven it's first ever national title. So close but yet so far. Their final record was 50-8 which proves that they never had a bad week only bad days.

Setting it up for the kill later in the match she smashes for the final score.

What's That Yellin' About

This yellin' is about cheerleaders and about spirit. It's about being out there cheering your favorite team on to victory. It's about being active in your college community. Most of all it's about having fun.

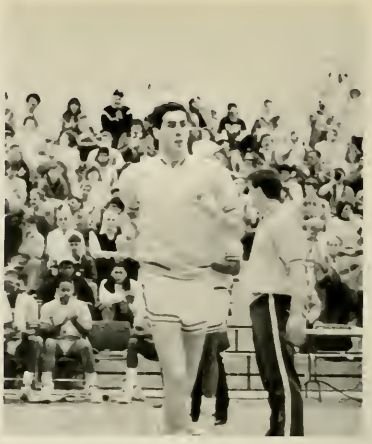
"The falling girl."

"the big split."

"the matterhorn."

"the chair lift."

Lets hear it loud as Lisa Edwards peps the crowd during football season.



During the pre-game activities Dave Santore hopes for a good game.

Bill Jeffries pops out of the pack to score two.

Senior Mike Costigan hits two here to help in the win over the rival Southern.

The perfect touch Dave Santore hits two of his 12.

Mark Drew pushes hard under the basket for 2 points.

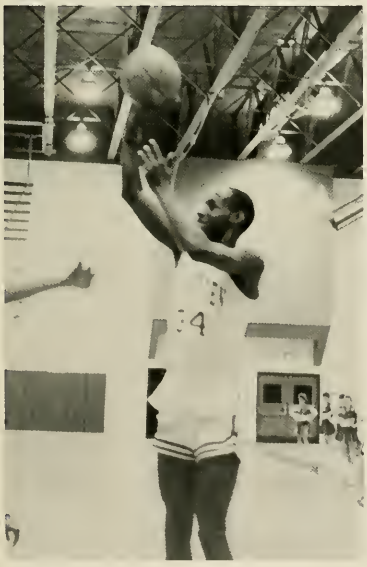
First time ever!



Ken Coleman gets three.

Before the season even started people were betting on the success of the Chargers. Little did any of them know that this team would be one of the all time great teams from New Haven.

The season started off and the people were still skeptics. A lot of people believed that it was all luck. Then one evening they beat arch rival and defending national champions Sacred Heart. This gave them the drive that they needed to go to the playoffs for the first time.

National #1 Champions

The national champions proudly show off their gold trophy.

Lorrie Correia always knew the meaning of the word hustle.

Senior captains Caroline Bell, Terri Stahl, and Sonja Beemon.

After a dismal season last year, the lacrosse team did very well. With a squad of mostly freshmen and sophomores, it was like getting a new start. Wait until next year!

Contemporary Groups

With the inception of this institution, there were schools of study with professors. Thereafter, the development of athletic teams. However, the students lacked an outlet of interaction with their fellow students. So, someone who cared replied, "Let there be clubs, organizations and a student government to maintain the peace."

From that, the intoxication of almost 70 diversely relative clubs and organizations, something for everyone, from the Accounting Club to Zeta Beta Tau. An incentive for the open-exploration of friendship.

New Citizens

You've finally alone it! Yes, you've made it through what have been a combination of your best/worse times of your life. It was then, that you thought your dreams died, but, the good times overuled. Well, now that you've made it your consolation prize is graduation. You depart carrying the love, and memorable friendships and tears of joy. You leave behind your mark on the teachers and students whom aided in the completion of your personal/scholastic endeavors. However, you are now amongst the new working class in yet an old market place.
